

*At right: Cory Lidle's
father holding Cory Lidle's son*

CORY LIDLE SCULPTURE DEDICATED AS PART OF BLD CEREMONIES

The Cory Lidle sculpture is the City of West Covina's first sponsored public art project and depicts former West Covina resident Cory Lidle. Lidle was a former New York Yankee pitcher and South Hills High School alumni, class of 1990, who was killed in an airplane accident in 2006.

The 9-foot bronze sculpture was designed and sculpted by artist Don Hunt.

With precise attention to detail that includes the pinstriping of the New York Yankees' uniform, the City of West Covina welcomes this sculpture of a homegrown hero showcased at the Big League Dreams Sports Complex.